SECTION-5: GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. Deviations/ expectation and other specific design requirements are to be given along with the technical bid. Vendor will give at least seven days notice for inspection at the designated location of the Jetty.

2. Saving Clause:

No suit, prosecution or any legal proceedings shall lie against tender inviting authority or any person for anything that is done in good faith or intended to be done in pursuance of tender. ZHL reserves the right to procure the FRP floating Jetty with walkway separately if the price of the Jetty found to be unreasonable and exorbitant.

3. Force Majeure:

The Vendor shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, it's delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligation under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

For purposes of this Clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the Vendor and not due to Vendor's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not limited to, acts of the Tendering authority either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

If a Force Majeure situation arises, the vendor shall promptly notify ZHL in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by ZHL, in writing, the Vendor shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

4. Termination of Contract:

ZHL may terminate the contract for any reason by giving the vendor notice of Termination. Upon receipt of notice of termination, the vendor shall either immediately or upon the date specified in the notice of termination cease all further work except for such as the purchaser (NHM) may specify in the notice of termination. In the event of termination of contract the ZHL shall pay to the vendor the price for the works executed by the vendor as of the date of termination.

The ZHL may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the vendor, if the vendor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent.

ZHL may without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract by written notice of default sent to the vendor, terminate the contract in whole or in part.

If the vendor fails to deliver the complete vessel within the time period specified in the contract, or any extension thereof granted by the service provider.

If the vendor fails to perform any other obligation under the contract

If the vendor does not remedy his failure within a period of 15 days after receipt of default notice from the service provider.

In the event that the service provider terminates the contract in whole or in part the service provider may procure upon such terms and in such manner as deems appropriate. Vendor shall be liable to the service provider for any excess cost towards such procurement.

5. Resolution of Disputes

If any dispute arises between parties, then there would be two ways for resolution of the dispute under the Contract.

a. Amicable settlement

Performance of the contract is governed by the terms and conditions of the contract, however at times dispute may arise about any interpretation of any term or condition of contract including the scope of work, the clauses of payments etc. In such a situation, either party of the contract may send a written notice of dispute to the other party. The party receiving the notice of dispute will consider the notice and respond to it in writing within 30 days after receipt.

b. Resolution of disputes

In the case dispute arising between the parties in the contract, which has not been settled amicably, any party can refer the dispute for Arbitration under (Indian) Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Such disputes shall be referred to Arbitral Tribunal as prescribed by Ministry of Law, Government of India. The Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof, shall apply to these arbitration proceedings. Arbitration proceedings will be held in Mumbai, Maharashtra and the language of the arbitration proceeding shall be in English and that of all documents and communications between the parties shall be as per directions of Arbitration Tribunal.

The decision of the majority of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon both the parties. The expenses of the arbitration as determined by the arbitrators shall be borne by party/parties as per directions of Arbitrator. However, the expenses incurred by each party in connection with the preparation, presentation shall be borne by the party itself.

6. Court Jurisdiction

All legal disputes between the parties shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts situated in Bhubaneswar/Mumbai only.
